

SAVE HORSMONDEN FAIR

The biggest Travellers' get-to-gether in Kent is under threat of extinction this year with an attempt to ban the Horsmonden Fair.

Well-known for centuries as the favourite of Hop-pickers, Horsmonden has a heritage going back a millennium. The village, near Tunbridge Wells, was recorded in the Doomsday Book as "the place of the horsebreeders".

To help maintain this tradition, all Travellers, members of the Gypsy Council and supporters are urged to attend a rally and picnic on HORSMONDEN GREEN early as you can Sunday morning, September 10th. Bring your own provisions and banners ("SAVE THE FAIR" etc), and your mobile.

For more Information and to let us know you're call Grattan Puxon on 01206 523 528 or leave a message for Charlie Smith at 01708 868986